Terms of Application

The Arthur T. Ross Endowed Automotive Scholarship Fund has been established to honor the memory of a man who valued education highly and who continually strived to help young people interested in the field of automotive technology receive the education to excel in this career. Arthur T. Ross, through this scholarship fund, will continue to support the educational process of young people of high moral fiber and great personal ambition.

This scholarship is intended to provide financial assistance to students in the Automotive Technology Program at SIU. The scholarship award is to be applied only toward tuition, housing, or books. No other expenses of any kind are to be paid with this scholarship. *If an award recipient transfers out of the Automotive Program, the recipient must relinquish all rights to the balance of the award, and refund any portion of the scholarship already used. The recipient will be required to write a thank you letter to the scholarship provider.

Scholarship amounts are dependent on fund balance at the time of award and subject to 6% handling charge by the SIU Foundation. Applicants must be accepted by the Automotive Technology program at SIU at the time of application.
